Description of the Programme

The seminar titled "What Next After College?" was held on 18th August 2023 at Domkal Girls' College, jointly organized by the Labour Department of the Government of West Bengal, IQAC, and the Career Counselling Cell of the college. The main speaker, Mr. Amit Dolui, a WBCS officer and the Officer In Charge of the District Employment Exchange in Domkal, shared his experiences and the challenges he faced on his path to success. His heartfelt story resonated with the students, inspiring them to overcome obstacles in their own lives.

Mr. Dolui emphasized the importance of utilizing the free government job preparation services available at the employment exchange, highlighting how these resources can significantly aid in their career development. The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Mr. Priyankar Das, the convenor of the Career Counselling Cell, who acknowledged the efforts of Principal Dr. Alak Kumar Das in making the event a success.

Strengths

Engaging Speaker: Mr. Amit Dolui's personal stories and relatable experiences captivated the audience, making the seminar impactful and memorable.

Practical Guidance: The seminar provided practical advice on utilizing government resources for job preparation, offering students actionable steps to follow.

Weaknesses

Limited Time: The duration of the seminar was relatively short, which may have limited the depth of discussion on certain topics.

Attendance: While the event was well-attended, some students may have missed out on the opportunity due to scheduling conflicts or lack of awareness.

Opportunities

Follow-up Workshops: The college can organize follow-up workshops to delve deeper into specific career-related topics and provide more personalized guidance to students.

Increased Awareness: The seminar can serve as a foundation for increasing awareness about employment exchange services among a larger student population.

Challenges

Sustained Motivation: Maintaining the students' motivation and engagement with career planning and preparation activities after the initial seminar excitement has worn off.
