“He who plants a tree, plants hope!”

DOMKAL, 20th July, 2022: ARANYA SAPTAHO UJJAPON is an annual tree planting festival celebrated throughout India to honor and pay respect to the mighty creators and the lungs of Mother Earth.

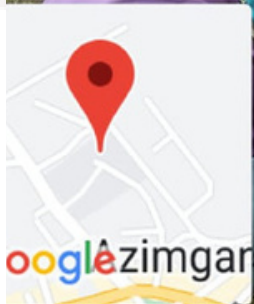

DOMKAL GIRLS' COLLEGE observed ARANYA SAPTAHO UJJAPON on the 20th of July 2022. The teachers, students and all the other staff of the college looked up to the almighty plants and celebrated this event by spreading joy and good words about plants.

The event began with a warm welcome speech delivered by the Respected Principal Sir, Dr. Alak Kumar Das.

Principal's words of encouragement to plant saplings had a great affect on everyone present. They expressed the importance of planting trees and their socio-economic effects. Several hazardous problems or issues created by the deforestation was highlighted through this speech.
