Objective

An internal assessment is a continuous and comprehensive process of evaluation conducted during an ongoing academic session, to promote and facilitate the learning process through an active participation by students with a passive yet advisory role being adopted by the teachers. The primary objectives of the internal assessment are:

- To integrate the process of teaching and evaluation.
- To test inherent skills and analytical abilities of the students that cannot be substituted by a written examination.
- To continuously formulate innovative ideas in a congenial environment.
- To encourage the active participation of students in self-assessment of their thinking skills.
- To promote inter and intra personal skills between students and teachers for effective communication.
- To co-ordinate a teacher's role as a mentor and guide.
