Assistant Professor of English,
DOMKAL GIRLS' COLLEGE

Introduction:

On the 17th of May, 2021, an enlightening online webinar was conducted by Assistant Professor of English, Parantap Chakraborty. The focus of the webinar was to delve into the concept of theory and its intricate relationship with history.

Exploring Theory:

Professor Chakraborty began by defining theory as a systematic framework that allows individuals to understand, interpret, and analyse various phenomena. He emphasized that theory serves as a lens through which one can view the world, offering insights and explanations for complex phenomena.

The Relationship Between History and Theory:

One of the central themes of the webinar was the interconnection between history and theory. Professor Chakraborty elucidated that theory is deeply rooted in historical context, as it evolves in response to societal changes, cultural shifts, and intellectual developments. He stressed that theories are not static entities but dynamic constructs that adapt and transform over time.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, the webinar conducted by Assistant Professor Parantap Chakraborty offered valuable insights into the nature of theory and its relationship with history. By exploring the dynamic interplay between these two domains, participants gained a deeper understanding of how theories emerge, evolve, and shape our perceptions of the world. The webinar served as a reminder of the importance of contextualizing theoretical frameworks within their historical milieu, ultimately enriching scholarly discourse and intellectual inquiry.

Q&A session

The webinar concluded with a lively Q&A session, during which participants had the opportunity to engage with Professor Chakraborty and further explore the themes discussed. Overall, the webinar was a resounding success, fostering intellectual curiosity and critical thinking among attendees.
